MY FOOD IS TO DO GOD'S WILL

John 4:27-30

May 7, 2017

Is there anything in life that you want more than food?

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- They disciples wondered why Jesus was speaking with a woman, but they urged him to eat.

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- They disciples wondered why Jesus was speaking with a woman, but they urged him to eat.
- Jesus resisted and said, “I have food to eat that you do not know about” (4:32).

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- They disciples wondered why Jesus was speaking with a woman, but they urged him to eat.
- Jesus resisted and said, “I have food to eat that you do not know about” (4:32).
- What is food?

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- They disciples wondered why Jesus was speaking with a woman, but they urged him to eat.
- Jesus resisted and said, “I have food to eat that you do not know about” (4:32).
- What is food?
 - Food is necessary nourishment for life.

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- They disciples wondered why Jesus was speaking with a woman, but they urged him to eat.
- Jesus resisted and said, “I have food to eat that you do not know about” (4:32).
- What is food?
 - Food is necessary nourishment for life.
 - Food is a gracious gift for our pleasure and God’s glory.

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- Why does Jesus compare food to the will and work of God?

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- Why does Jesus compare food to the will and work of God?
 - The will and work of God is necessary nourishment for the soul.

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- Why does Jesus compare food to the will and work of God?
 - The will and work of God is necessary nourishment for the soul.
 - The will and work of God are the ultimate enjoyment the soul.

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- Why does Jesus compare food to the will and work of God?
 - The will and work of God is necessary nourishment for the soul.
 - The will and work of God are the ultimate enjoyment the soul.
 - When by the grace of God, we learn to walk in the will of God, we gain the eternal joy of God.

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- Why does Jesus say, “the will of him who sent me?” Why does it matter that he was sent?

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- Why does Jesus say, “the will of him who sent me?” Why does it matter that he was sent?
 - As a man, Jesus was under the authority of his Father.

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- Why does Jesus say, “the will of him who sent me?” Why does it matter that he was sent?
 - As a man, Jesus was under the authority of his Father.
 - Jesus had a plan but his Father had an agenda, and he gladly sacrificed his plan for God’s agenda?

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- Why does Jesus say, “the will of him who sent me?” Why does it matter that he was sent?
 - As a man, Jesus was under the authority of his Father.
 - Jesus had a plan but his Father had an agenda, and he gladly sacrificed his plan for God’s agenda?
- When the harvest comes, farmers must be totally focused on their crops.

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- Why does Jesus say, “the will of him who sent me?” Why does it matter that he was sent?
 - As a man, Jesus was under the authority of his Father.
 - Jesus had a plan but his Father had an agenda, and he gladly sacrificed his plan for God’s agenda?
- When the harvest comes, farmers must be totally focused on their crops.
- Likewise, since the spiritual fields are white to harvest, Jesus’ disciples must be focused.

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- Jesus carefully connects his ministry of reaping to the seeds sown in former times.

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- Jesus carefully connects his ministry of reaping to the seeds sown in former times.
- Jesus then sent his disciples to reap what they did not sow.

Jesus and the Disciples (4:31-38)

- Jesus carefully connects his ministry of reaping to the seeds sown in former times.
- Jesus then sent his disciples to reap what they did not sow.
- We don't know how the disciples responded, but in time this teaching shaped their lives—unto death!

Jesus and the Samaritans (4:31-42)

- As Jesus was teaching, the Samaritan woman was sharing and persuading her people to meet Jesus.

Jesus and the Samaritans (4:31-42)

- As Jesus was teaching, the Samaritan woman was sharing and persuading her people to meet Jesus.
- When the crowd arrived, they asked Jesus to stay with them and since his food was God's will, he said yes and remained there for two days.

Jesus and the Samaritans (4:31-42)

- As Jesus was teaching, the Samaritan woman was sharing and persuading her people to meet Jesus.
- When the crowd arrived, they asked Jesus to stay with them and since his food was God's will, he said yes and remained there for two days.
- We don't know what he said and did, but we know that many believed in him.

Jesus and the Samaritans (4:31-42)

- As Jesus was teaching, the Samaritan woman was sharing and persuading her people to meet Jesus.
- When the crowd arrived, they asked Jesus to stay with them and since his food was God's will, he said yes and remained there for two days.
- We don't know what he said and did, but we know that many believed in him.
- When Jesus commanded his disciples to preach in Samaria, there were already believers there!

Jesus and the Galileans (4:43-45)

- Jesus traveled to Galilee even though he said that a prophet has no honor in his hometown.

Jesus and the Galileans (4:43-45)

- Jesus traveled to Galilee even though he said that a prophet has no honor in his hometown.
- They received him, but he did not entrust himself to them (see John 2:24-25).

What Shall We Do?

- The details of our lives are different but the issue is the same:

What Shall We Do?

- The details of our lives are different but the issue is the same:

Is our food the will and work of God?
