Jesus Walks on the Water (6:16-21)

- After Jesus fed the people, he withdrew with his Father and sent the disciples to Capernaum.

Jesus Walks on the Water (6:16-21)

- After Jesus fed the people, he withdrew with his Father and sent the disciples to Capernaum.
- As the disciples rowed across the Sea of Galilee, a gale-force wind arose against them.

Jesus Walks on the Water (6:16-21)

- After Jesus fed the people, he withdrew with his Father and sent the disciples to Capernaum.
- As the disciples rowed across the Sea of Galilee, a gale-force wind arose against them.
- They did not quit because they were seeking to obey Jesus' command.

Jesus Walks on the Water (6:16-21)

- After Jesus fed the people, he withdrew with his Father and sent the disciples to Capernaum.
- As the disciples rowed across the Sea of Galilee, a gale-force wind arose against them.
- They did not quit because they were seeking to obey Jesus' command.
- At about 3:00 a.m., Jesus walked to them on water and brought them to their destination.

Jesus Walks on the Water (6:16-21)

- Jesus walked on the water in obedience to his Father; he was not seeking to impress his disciples.

Jesus Walks on the Water (6:16-21)

- Jesus walked on the water in obedience to his Father; he was not seeking to impress his disciples.
- The punch of this story is that the presence of Christ enables obedience to Christ, no matter the obstacles that stand in our way.

The Work of God (6:22-33)

- The crowd was still seeking Jesus but they were perplexed about his whereabouts.

The Work of God (6:22-33)

- The crowd was still seeking Jesus but they were perplexed about his whereabouts.
- They decided to cross the Sea and eventually found Jesus in Capernaum.

The Work of God (6:22-33)

- The crowd was still seeking Jesus but they were perplexed about his whereabouts.
- They decided to cross the Sea and eventually found Jesus in Capernaum.
- Jesus ignored their question and went to the heart of the matter: their unbelief.

The Work of God (6:22-33)

- The crowd was still seeking Jesus but they were perplexed about his whereabouts.
- They decided to cross the Sea and eventually found Jesus in Capernaum.
- Jesus ignored their question and went to the heart of the matter: their unbelief.
- Jesus taught them to labor for the food that lasts, and they then asked what they should do.

The Work of God (6:22-33)

Jesus answered, “This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent” (6:29)

The Work of God (6:22-33)

- On hearing this, the people didn't reject Jesus but they didn't understand or buy into him.

The Work of God (6:22-33)

- On hearing this, the people didn't reject Jesus but they didn't understand or buy into him.
- They then asked him for the sign of manna because of the teaching of their Rabbis.

The Work of God (6:22-33)

- On hearing this, the people didn't reject Jesus but they didn't understand or buy into him.
- They then asked him for the sign of manna because of the teaching of their Rabbis.
- Jesus taught them that the Rabbis were wrong about the past and their present expectations.

Jesus is the Bread of Life (6:34-40)

- The people asked Jesus for this heavenly bread and he answered, “I Am the bread of life” (6:34).

Jesus is the Bread of Life (6:34-40)

- The people asked Jesus for this heavenly bread and he answered, “I Am the bread of life” (6:34).
- Jesus taught them that he was not only equal to Moses, but greater than him.

Jesus is the Bread of Life (6:34-40)

- The people asked Jesus for this heavenly bread and he answered, “I Am the bread of life” (6:34).
- Jesus taught them that he was not only equal to Moses, but greater than him.
- Jesus knew that the people didn’t believe in him, but he took comfort in the purposes and plans of his Father.

- Jesus taught them that he was not only equal to Moses, but greater than him.
- Jesus knew that the people didn’t believe in him, but he took comfort in the purposes and plans of his Father.
- The will of the Father is that whoever fights the fight of faith will live forever in Christ.

Final Thoughts

- When it comes to living by faith in Christ, how are you doing?

Final Thoughts

- When it comes to living by faith in Christ, how are you doing?
- We're all busy, true enough, but we make time for what we value; we make time for those we love?

Final Thoughts

- We're all busy, true enough, but we make time for what we value; we make time for those we love?
- What obstacles are standing in the way of your progress in Christ?

Final Thoughts

- When it comes to living by faith in Christ, how are you doing?
- We're all busy, true enough, but we make time for what we value; we make time for those we love?
- What obstacles are standing in the way of your progress in Christ?
- No matter what they are, our obstacles don't intimidate Jesus—they're as nothing to him and he will help us overcome!
